

Refuge (Psalm 5) [Lyrics, 62 bpm, 4/4]

[The Worshiping Songwriter] by Daniel Loch and Jarred Cain

V1, C, V2, C, Inter, B, C×2

VERSE 1

O Lord, give ear to my words
O Lord, consider my groaning
Heed the sound of my cry for help
My king and my God
To you I pray
In the morning you will hear me and I will wait for you

CHORUS

Let all who take refuge in you be glad
Let them ever sing with great joy
May You shelter them, that they may praise your name
You surround them with your favor as a shield
You surround them with your favor as a shield shield

VERSE 2

O Lord, no evil will please you
O Lord, no evil stands be-fore you
You oppose all who lie and sin
Their boast shall not stand
But as for me
By Your kindness so abundant I will dwell in-side Your house

INTERLUDE

(Building)
(Softly)

Refuge (Psalm 5) - V1, C, V2, C, Inter, B, C×2

Bridge

Lead me in Your righteousness
Lead me in Your righteousness
Not by my strength or by my hands only with Your Son I stand

Lord You are my righteousness,
Lord you are my righteousness
Not who I am or what I've done, only by Your unfailing love

CHORUS

Let all who take refuge in you be glad
Let them ever sing with great joy
May You shelter them, that they may praise your name
You surround them with your favor as a shield

You surround them with your favor as a shield shield